Federman & Sherwood Announces Filing of First Securities Class Action on Behalf of Purchasers of CenturyLink Bonds

Federman & Sherwood Announces Filing of First Securities Class Action on Behalf of Purchasers of CenturyLink Bonds

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 25, 2017 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Federman & Sherwood announces that on October 25, 2017, it filed a class action lawsuit in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York against CenturyLink (NYSE:CTL). The class action was filed on behalf of purchasers of CenturyLink's 7.60% Senior Notes, Series P, due 2039. The complaint alleges violations of federal securities laws, Sections 10(b) and 20(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5, including allegations that CenturyLink and certain of its officers issued a series of materially false or misleading representations to the market, which had the effect of artificially inflating the market price for the bonds during the period March 1, 2013 through June 19, 2017, inclusive (the "Class Period").

Plaintiff seeks to recover damages on behalf of the purchasers of CenturyLink's bonds or notes during the Class Period. If you purchased CenturyLink's bonds or notes, you may be a member of the Class, as described above. You may move the Court no later than December 26, 2017 to serve as a lead plaintiff for the entire Class. However, in order to do so, you must meet certain legal requirements pursuant to the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995.

If you purchased CenturyLink's bonds or notes and want to discuss this action, obtain further information, or participate in this litigation, please contact:
